International Council of Securities Associations (ICSA) Appoints Ian Russell, IIAC President & CEO, as New Chair of the Standing Committee on Regulatory Affairs

Toronto, July 10, 2012 – Ian Russell, President & CEO of the Investment Industry Association of Canada (IIAC), has been appointed Chair of the Standing Committee on Regulatory Affairs at the International Council of Securities Associations (ICSA).

The appointment was ratified at ICSA's 25th Annual General Meeting held recently in Copenhagen, Denmark.

Mr. Russell is the first Canadian to hold this position.

The Standing Committee on Regulatory Affairs serves as the overall co-ordinating committee for ICSA on regulatory matters, with the ability to set up specific Working Groups as necessary. The Standing Committee routinely submits position papers to global regulatory bodies such as the Financial Stability Board (FSB) and the International Organization of Securities Commissions (IOSCO). It additionally serves as a forum to enhance the exchange of information among ICSA members on regulatory issues and to share common experiences and best practices as they relate to ICSA members' interests in the global regulation and supervision of capital markets.

“We are delighted to have Mr. Russell serve as Chair of ICSA's Standing Committee on Regulatory Affairs,” said Dr. Marilyn Skiles, Secretary General of ICSA. “His knowledge of capital markets and experience in securities regulation, as well as bringing a Canadian perspective to our work, will be helpful in developing the ICSA agenda on global regulatory reform.

“With global capital markets in a state of turmoil, this is an ideal time to have an investment industry leader from Canada – whose financial systems have fared comparatively well – guide our work over the next two years.”

Mr. Russell said of his appointment: “This is an important role as the IIAC will be at the epicenter of the global reform process, through our work on this key ICSA Committee. Leadership of the Committee will provide a window on the global regulatory agenda, notably in Europe, the United States and Asia.”

Investment Industry Association of Canada (IIAC)

The Investment Industry Association of Canada (IIAC) is a member-based professional association that advances the growth and development of the Canadian investment industry, acting as a strong, proactive voice to represent the interests of our members and the investing public. The following four areas of focus provide clear and purposeful direction for our actions and initiatives: market advancement, advocacy, profile and reputation, and member support. For more information, please visit www.iiac.ca.

International Council of Securities Associations (ICSA)

ICSA was established in 1988, in the aftermath of the severe stock market correction of 1987. In view of the growing linkages between national capital markets and self-regulatory associations representing the world's largest financial markets agreed to establish an international body of practitioners as a means to share information, work toward global best practices and promote mutual understanding. Membership of ICSA is composed of trade associations and self-regulatory associations for the capital markets that collectively represent and/or regulate the vast majority of the world's financial services firms on both a national and international basis. ICSA's objectives are: (1) to encourage the sound growth of the international securities markets by promoting harmonization in the procedures and regulation of those markets; and (2) to promote mutual understanding and the exchange of information among ICSA members. QUEEN ELIZABETH II DIAMOND JUBILEE MEDAL BACKGROUNDER

The commemorative Queen Elizabeth II Diamond Jubilee Medal was created to mark the 2012 celebrations of the 60th anniversary of Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth II's accession to the Throne on February 6, 1952. It is described by the Office of the Governor General as "... a tangible way for Canada to honour Her Majesty for her service to this country. At the same time, it serves to honour significant contributions and achievements by Canadians."

NOMINATIONS

IIAC's Board of Directors is seeking nominations of men and women from across the country, working in or who have worked in or for the securities industry and who have contributed in a significant way to the development of the Canadian investment industry or capital markets. The Board and Selection Panel want suggestions of people from all securities industry segments, ages, genders, and functions within the securities industry, as well as people in companies that support the industry's effectiveness.

In accordance with Office of the Governor General guidance, each person nominated must:

- Be a Canadian citizen or a permanent resident of Canada, but need not necessarily reside in Canada;
- Have made a significant contribution to a particular province, territory, region or community within Canada, or an achievement abroad that brings credit to Canada; and
- Be alive on February 6, 2012, the 60th anniversary of Her Majesty's accession to the Throne.

As well, the following requirements apply:

- Through their achievements and sustained contribution, the candidates must have distinguished themselves from others employed in the same field;
- Recipients must be highly respected individuals within their community;
- The list of recipients should be inclusive and reflect the demographics of the ... community;
- The selection process should be non-partisan and merit-based;
- The medal is to be awarded to individuals only, not to groups or couples.

Examples of the reasons for which securities industry candidates may be nominated include those who have:

- Created independent franchises to serve the investing public and corporate/government issuers;
- Devised innovative solutions in the financing, trading and advice businesses;
- Designed and implemented capital markets infrastructure for trading, clearing and settlement;
- Advocated for good public policy surrounding, and effective regulation of, the firms, markets and people in our industry.

PROCESS

By June 1, 2012: Nominate one or more candidate(s) meeting the above criteria by emailing PublicAffairs@iiac.ca with the following information – incomplete nominations will not be considered.

1. Name of nominee(s), current title, employer (or retired), e-mail address and phone number;
2. Why the nominee deserves to receive a medal: Maximum of 250 characters including spaces;
3. Supporting evidence: Three to five bullets elaborating on the nominee's contribution to the securities industry and capital markets of Canada;
4. Your name, current title, employer (if any), e-mail and phone number;
5. Your relationship to the nominee (former colleague; sat on the same Board; friend, etc.).

By July 1, 2012: The Medal Selection Panel will review all entries and finalize a list of recommended award winners.

By July 15, 2012: IIAC will verify if any recommended names have already been awarded medals (in which case their names will be removed from the list) and forward the final recommendations to the Board of Directors for consideration.

By July 30, 2012: The Board of Directors will select/confirm 38 medal winners.

Sept. 20, 2012: The IIAC Board of Directors Chair and President will announce medal winners and bestow medals at the IIAC Annual Conference Dinner.
